

JAMES NAISMITH
BUILDER

Ken Shields – Coach Induction Class of 1999

- Shields has held the most wins as a coach in CIS men's basketball history with the University of Victoria
- Shields is a former head coach of the Canadian Men Basketball Team and was also head coach for 6 years at Laurentian University
- Shields coached the University of Victoria Vikes from 1978 to 1989 and oversaw the team win 7 consecutive CIS championships
- Shields was named CIS coach of the year 3 times with the Vikes
- Shields was awarded the 2007 James Naismith award by Canada Basketball for a significant lifelong contribution to basketball in Canada

